Processional Hymn # 293 I sing a song of the saints of God

1 I sing a song of the saints of God,
2 They loved their Lord so dear, so dear, and__ 3 They lived not only in ages past, there are patient and brave and true, who__ toiled and__ fought and__ his love__ made them strong; and they__ followed the right, for__ hundreds of thousands still, the__ world is__ bright with the lived and died for the Lord they loved and knew. And__ Jesus’ sake, the__ whole of their good lives long. And__ joyous saints who__ love to do Jesus’ will. You can one was a doctor, and one was a queen, and one was a shepherd; one was a soldier, and one was a priest, and one was slain meet them in school, or in lanes, or at sea, in church, or in trains, herd__ on the__ green; they were all of them saints of__

by a fierce wild__ beast; and there’s not any reason—or in shops, or at tea, for the saints of__ God are just

God__ and I mean, God helping, to be one too.
no, not the least, why I shouldn’t be one too.
folk like__ me, and I mean to be one too.
The Collect of the Day

Priest         Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People        And blessed be his kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

Priest         There is one Body and one Spirit;

People        There is one hope in God’s call to us;

Priest         One Lord, one Faith, one Baptism;

People        One God and Father of all,

Priest         The Lord be with you.

People        And also with you.

Priest         Let us pray.

Almighty God, you have knit together your elect in one communion and fellowship in the mystical body of your Son Christ our Lord: Give us grace so to follow your blessed saints in all virtuous and godly living, that we may come to those ineffable joys that you have prepared for those who truly love you; through Jesus Christ our Lord; who with you and the Holy Spirit, lives and reigns, one God, in glory everlasting. Amen.

We sit to hear the lessons.

Lector

Let us now sing the praises of the famous, our ancestors in their generations. God apportioned to them great glory, and majesty from the beginning:

Lector

All these were honored in their generation, and were the glory of their times. There are some of them who have left a name, so that we all declare their praise. And there are some who have left no memorial, who have perished as though they had not lived.

And there were people of mercy, whose righteous deeds have not been forgotten. Their followers stand by the covenant with God, as do their children, also, for their sake.

A brief silence is observed.

The people are invited to remember their own beloved departed.

Lector

Their posterity will continue forever, and their glory will not be blotted out. Their bodies were buried in peace and their names live to all generations. Peoples will declare their wisdom, and the congregation will proclaim their praise.

Psalm 24

1  The earth is the LORD’s and all that is in it,* the world and all who dwell therein.

2  For it is he who founded it upon the seas* and made it firm upon the rivers of the deep.

3  “Who can ascend the hill of the LORD?* and who can stand in his holy place?”

4  “Those who have clean hands and a pure heart,* who have not pledged themselves to falsehood, nor sworn by what is a fraud.

5  They shall receive a blessing from the LORD* and a just reward from the God of their salvation.

6  Such is the generation of those who seek him,* of those who seek your face, O God of Jacob.
Lift up your heads, O gates; lift them high, O everlasting doors;* and the King of glory shall come in.

“Who is this King of glory?”* “The LORD, strong and mighty, the LORD, mighty in battle.”

Lift up your heads, O gates; lift them high, O everlasting doors;* and the King of glory shall come in.

“Who is he, this King of glory?”* “The LORD of hosts, he is the King of glory.”

The Second Lesson
Revelation 21:1-6a

Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. And I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, "See, the home of God is among mortals. He will dwell with them as their God; they will be his peoples, and God himself will be with them; he will wipe every tear from their eyes. Death will be no more; mourning and crying and pain will be no more, for the first things have passed away." And the one who was seated on the throne said, "See, I am making all things new." Also he said, "Write this, for these words are trustworthy and true." Then he said to me, "It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end."

The Holy Gospel

John 11:32-44

When Mary came where Jesus was and saw him, she knelt at his feet and said to him, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died." When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her also weeping, he was greatly disturbed in spirit and deeply moved. He said, "Where have you laid him?" They said to him, "Lord, come and see." Jesus began to weep So the Jews said, "See how he loved him!" But some of them said, "Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?"

Then Jesus, again greatly disturbed, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it. Jesus said, "Take away the stone." Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, "Lord, already there is a stench because he has been dead four days." Jesus said to her, "Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?" So they took away the stone. And Jesus looked upward and said, "Father, I thank you for having heard me. I knew that you always hear me, but I have said this for the sake of the crowd standing here, so that they may believe that you sent me." When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, "Lazarus come out!" The dead man came out, his hands and feet bound with strips of cloth, and his face wrapped in a cloth. Jesus said to them, "Unbind him and let him go."

Priest The Gospel of the Lord.

The Sermon

The Reverend Robert Trask.

Silence for meditation

The Renewal of Baptismal Vows

The People stand.

Priest At our baptism we were adopted by God and joined the larger family of saints throughout the ages. I call upon you, therefore as we celebrate the feast of All Saints to renew the solemn promises and vows of Holy Baptism, by which we once renounced Satan and all his works, and promised to serve God faithfully in his holy catholic Church.

Priest Do you believe in God the Father?

People I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

Priest Do you believe in Jesus Christ, the Son of God?

People I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again. He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

Priest Do you believe in God the Holy Spirit?
People
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting.

Priest
Will you continue in the apostles’ teaching and fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and in the prayers?

People
I will, with God’s help.

Priest
Will you persevere in resisting evil, and, whenever you fall into sin, repent and return to the Lord?

People
I will, with God’s help.

Priest
Will you proclaim by word and example the Good News of God in Christ?

People
I will, with God’s help.

Priest
Will you seek and serve Christ in all persons, loving your neighbor as yourself?

People
I will, with God’s help.

Priest
Will you strive for justice and peace among all people, and respect the dignity of every human being?

People
I will, with God’s help.

Priest
May Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has given us new birth by water and the Holy Spirit, and bestowed upon us the forgiveness of sins, keep us in eternal life by his grace, in Christ Jesus our Lord. Amen.

Celebrant

The Lord be with you. And also with you.

Celebrant

Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People

It is right to give him thanks and praise.
It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. For in the multitude of your saints you have surrounded us with a great cloud of witnesses, that we might rejoice in their fellowship, and run with endurance the race that is set before us; and, together with them, receive the crown of glory that never fades away.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus: Holy, holy, holy Lord S 130

\begin{align*}
\textit{Holy, holy, holy Lord,} \\
\textit{God of power and might,} \\ \textit{heaven and earth are full,} \\
\textit{full of your glory.} \\
\end{align*}
Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself, and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world. On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."
After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Memorial Acclamation: Prayer A W860

Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

Priest

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ: By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and forever. AMEN.

Priest And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

In Unison

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.
The Breaking of the Bread

The Episcopal Church invites all Christians to receive communion. The host is placed in your open hands; please assist in guiding the chalice to your lips, or dip the host in the wine. We have gluten free hosts available, ask the priest at the rail. It is acceptable to receive only the bread or the wine. If you would rather not receive communion, you are invited to come to the rail for a blessing. Simply cross your arms over your chest and the priest will say a prayer for you.

Priest  Let us pray.

In Unison

Almighty and ever living God, we thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the Body of your Son, and heirs of your eternal kingdom. And now, Father, send us out to do the work you have given us to do, to love and serve you as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord. To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory, now and forever. Amen.

The Blessing

Priest

May Almighty God, to whose glory we celebrate this festival of all the Saints, be now and evermore your guide and companion in the way.
Amen.

May God, who has bound us together in the company of the elect, in this age and the age to come, attend to the prayers of his faithful servants on your behalf as he hears your prayers for them. Amen.

May God, who has given us, in the lives of his saints, patterns of holy living and victorious dying, strengthen your faith and devotion, and enable you to bear witness to the truth against all adversity. Amen

And the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be upon you and remain with you for ever. Amen.
